More than $773 Million in Mortgages Saved in Northeast Region of U.S. in 2009, including nearly $142,000,000 of HAMP Loan Modifications

Genworth Financial, a leading mortgage insurer, helped prevent the loss of more than $773 million in mortgages to foreclosure across the Northeast region of the U.S. in the 12 months ending December 31, 2009. Assisted by its lender partners and loan servicers, the company completed more than 5,000 successful mortgage workouts in the region over this period.

The total includes more than $141,985,471 in mortgages saved through the Home Affordable Modification Program (HAMP), the Obama Administration's principal foreclosure prevention plan.

In the fourth quarter alone, Genworth saved a total of $288,242,147 in mortgages from foreclosure in the Northeast region.

The quarterly Foreclosure Prevention Scorecard provides a representative snapshot of mortgage workout trends by analyzing data from Genworth's Homeowner Assistance program. Genworth Financial is committed to keeping homeowners in their homes, averting foreclosures and preserving communities by helping borrowers refinance or modify their mortgages.

Key findings for the Northeast Region in the 12 months ending December 2009:

- The most mortgage dollars saved were in New York ($119 million), New Jersey ($102 million) and Pennsylvania ($91 million).
- Loan modifications accounted for 43 percent of Genworth's workouts in the Northeast region, followed by repayment (22 percent), short sale (13 percent), HAMP (12 percent) and HomeSaver Advance™ (7 percent).
- Overall, more than eight of 10 delinquent borrowers were helped become current on their mortgages, and stayed in their homes.
- On average, each workout amounted to savings of $ 159,801.
