More than $697 Million of Mortgages Saved in Southeast Region of U.S. in 2009, including over $90,566,000 of HAMP Loan Modifications

Genworth Financial, a leading mortgage insurer, helped prevent the loss of more than $697 million in mortgages to foreclosure across the Southeast region of the U.S. in the 12 months ending December 31, 2009. Assisted by its lender partners and loan servicers, the company completed more than 5,700 successful mortgage workouts in the region over this period.

The total includes more than $90,566,000 in mortgages saved through the Home Affordable Modification Program (HAMP), the Obama Administration's principal foreclosure prevention plan.

In the fourth quarter alone, Genworth saved a total of $234,469,680 in mortgages from foreclosure in the Southeast region.

The quarterly Foreclosure Prevention Scorecard provides a representative snapshot of mortgage workout trends by analyzing data from Genworth's Homeowner Assistance program. Genworth Financial is committed to keeping homeowners in their homes, averting foreclosures and preserving communities by helping borrowers refinance or modify their mortgages.

Key findings for the Southeast Region in the 12 months ending December 2009:

- The most mortgage dollars saved were in Florida ($275 million), Georgia ($130 million), and North Carolina ($97 million).
- Loan modifications accounted for 40 percent of Genworth's workouts in the Southeast region, followed by repayment (21 percent), short sale (20 percent), HAMP (9 percent) and HomeSaver Advance™ (7 percent).
- Overall, nearly 8 of 10 delinquent borrowers became current on their mortgages, and stayed in their homes.
- On average, each workout amounted to savings of $122,946.

HAMP by the Numbers
